PROGRAM

For the past 34 years, the Chamber of Commerce's Leadership program has been dedicated to cultivating the leaders of tomorrow. Through comprehensive training and development initiatives, it empowers individuals to acquire the necessary skills, knowledge, and networks to thrive in leadership roles. This program has consistently played a crucial role in shaping the region's future by nurturing a diverse and capable cadre of professionals poised to make a positive impact.

REQUIREMENTS

Attend each of 10 class sessions.*

Attend 3 different "Out of Class" assignments of public body meetings: city council, county commission, or school board, or a police ride along. There is also an option for a well pitched Wild Card!

Participate in class community project.

*Missing more than two of the required sessions may result in removal from the program, or delayed graduation. Students have the option of returning the following program year to fulfill their requirements for graduation at no additional cost. Those making up missed sessions will graduate at the end of the program in that subsequent year.

SELECTION PROCESS

Class members will be selected on the basis of employment, professional experience, community involvement, geographic representation, job sector, and diversity.
